

5 easy ways to learn English

Many people fail when they start to learn a foreign language. All of this may be due to lack of time, doubts, weak motivation to study. Each person will have their own reason why he can't learn English for a long time. In this article we will give you a few tips on how to make learning English more effective. We went as much as 5, so your task is to choose the one that suits you.

Method # 1. Create in your mind images

Remember the simple dialogs that you use in your life. Remember, now write down what happened on paper or type on your computer. Put these words in the translator and start to study them. Your task is to visualize the situation of the conversation in my head and begin to pronounce words in English. You can also use the method of "Association". You need to imagine in your head the image of a word that you want to remember and attach it sound. This method will allow more efficient memorize English words and phrases.

Method # 2. Watch movies, read books and other information in English

You should regularly to see and process different information in the English language. For example, first you watch a video in English with subtitles, and then try to understand it a second time without subtitles. This method will allow you to understand the structure of speech and to learn a few English words. It is also important to disassemble the entire video smart custom writing. You just pause and record deals, trying to study them. This method is tedious, but it will give you a significant effect.

Method # 3. Useful apps

Now there are many ways to learn English. One of such methods is learning through application. The most useful proposals are applications where you will be able to speak with a foreigner through the Internet. Will you teach him the Russian language, and he in turn will teach you English. Thus, you will help a foreigner understand your language and it will improve your knowledge of English. Also, you can listen to English books in audio format or to use speech translator of words.

Method # 4. Immersion in the English language

If you have a lot of free time to study English, then you can try the method "immersion". You need a lot of time to listen to English speech, to analyze the texts and videos, read English books and so on. Your brain needs to be completely immersed in the English language. After a few weeks of such a regime, you will start to understand English a lot better and will translate some of the conversations instantly.

Method # 5. Travel

If you want to know English, then you need to go to a country where this language is essential. You will have the opportunity to surround yourself with English speech and understand some points that are not visible when studying at home. Your language skills will grow significantly, the main thing – it will be decided on such a journey.

Conclusion

It is important to understand the purpose of the study. After all why you started to learn English depends on many things in your future training. Our brains may think that English is not important to him and will continue to create a feeling of laziness and boredom. So you need to make a clear decision to study English and not to retreat at the first failure. Learn English and soon your brain will ask about it.